The large warehouse occupied by Letcher & Witt at Richmond was totally destroyed by fire. The building contained about 10,000 bushels of bluegrass seed, and it is supposed a spark from a train caused the fire. Hume Bros had a carload of hoop iron stored in the building, which was ruined. Their loss is about $2,000 without insurance. Letcher & Witt estimate their loss between $5,000 and $10,000, with only $1,500 insurance. The building belonged to Central University and was valued at $5,000, with about $3,500 insurance.

The first of a series of suits by those who contributed to both the endowment and location fund of Central University was filed Monday in the Madison circuit court by the trustees of the heirs of Rebecca Shearer against the Alumni Association of Central University to recover over $3,000, which the said Rebecca Shearer placed in the hands of a trustee "to be used to educate young men of Madison county at Central University in Madison county." The suit also asks for an injunction against Central University to prevent the consolidation.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

HARRODSBURG is one of the many up-to-date and delightful little cities found in this favored and famous blue grass section. Her homes are elegant, her people are refined, her merchants have big stocks of goods in splendid business houses, and she is a complete city within herself. In short, Harrodsburg is "all right," but that court-house spoils everything. Did you ever see it or hear its cow bell toll the hours? We hope not. Without joke or exaggeration Harrodsburg's court-house would be a discredit to any pauper county in Indiana—the worst State in the group. It was built without the aid of an architect and probably before comfort, convenience and beauty were given consideration. The county court and circuit court room is one and the same, and it is not large enough to "whip a dog in," while its floor is rough as mountain roads were before the good roads movement was started. The building is hardly decent enough to be condemned, let alone to get justice in and if the good people of Mercer don't soon pull it down and put up a more slightly one, outside aid will be solicited to do so. Judge Saufley would be justifiable, it seems to us, in refusing to hold court in such a concern as the Harrodsburg court house is.

THE intense heat of the last two weeks has caused an alarmingly large number of deaths in the cities. In New York alone there were over 500 deaths from heat in two days while the prostrations for those days more than double that number. While the heat is greater in the cities, the cause of so much destruction of human life is due to the fact that a great many of the poorer people haven't food enough to supply their wants and die in their efforts to sustain themselves and support their families. While Rockefeller, Carnegie and other rich men are giving of their means to various good causes they can now do great and immediate good by donating ice and proper food to the hungry and thirsty people of New York and other cities. Even a few thousand dollars to each city would alleviate the suffering to some extent and might result in the saving of many lives.

If the Richmond Register would use the same energy in talking up Richmond as it does in running the town down the merchants and others would patronize that paper more liberally and the Register man would have less cause for complaint. If Brer Rock can't speak a good word for his town, it seems to us that it would be sensible in him to say nothing.

GOV. BECKHAM has appointed S. B. Dishman circuit judge in place of Judge Tinsley, resigned. Mr. Dishman is one of the best lawyers in the mountains, is a highly respected citizen of Barbourville and is a democrat of the old school. The appointment is a capital one; just the kind our good governor usually makes.

AFTER his lecture on "A Conquering Nation" at Bristol, Tenn., 4,000 people shook hands with Hon. William Jennings Bryan. Notwithstanding his two defeats, everything goes to show that Mr. Bryan is still dear to the hearts of the people and that he is far from being dead politically or otherwise.

FRANK B. BURKE, who made one of the best speeches delivered here in the campaign of last year, is talked of for governor of Indiana. We are for him. With Mr. Burke as governor Fugitives Taylor and Finley would not remain in the Hoosier State much longer than Pat stayed in the army.

PRESIDENT THOMAS, of the "busted" Seventh National Bank of New York, gave his wife a $40,000 piece of jewelry when he wedded her last week. This is not likely to set well with those who lost in his bank and if it does not set tongues to wagging it will surprise us.

GOV. BRADLEY says he is out of politics and in the practice of law for money, but he takes time to say that Deboe will not be renominated for the Senate. Well, hardly. The republicans are not fools enough to invite the defeat that seems inevitable.

THE Danville Advocate has just celebrated its 36th birthday. There are few, if any, better papers in the State than the Advocate and we have no exchange that we enjoy more or do more clipping from. Long live the good newspaper.

EDITOR HARRIS, of the Adair News, has stopped foolin' with oil lands long enough to count the pianos and organs in Columbia. He found 43 of the former and 19 of the latter.

A JUDGE in Naples sentenced a criminal to 1,088 years of solitary confinement. The judge must have thought the prisoner a very close relative of Mathusalem.

Marion Butler declares that the populist party will stand alone in the next presidential campaign on the platform of public ownership of natural monopolies.

POLITICAL.

Nelson county republicans endorsed Sapp for reappointment as collector. Paul E. McDonald, of Kentucky, has been appointed an assistant surgeon in the navy.

Paris democrats renominated Ben Perry for mayor. He defeated W. F. Talbott seven votes.

Fred V. Martin, of Attica, Ind., has been appointed commissioner of emigration for Porto Rico.

C. W. Emory was appointed county judge of McCracken county to succeed Judge Tully, deceased.

Major O. L. Pruden resigned as paymaster in the army and resumed his old position of assistant secretary to the president.

Gen. Grosvenor says he was misquoted regarding the third-term question, and declares that in his judgment no man will ever be elected to a third term.

The expenditures of the government Wednesday were within $45,000 of $5,000,000. Of this amount nearly one-half was paid out for pensions and still the pension agents are not happy. The receipts of the government were over $3,000,000.

With Steve Sharp, the traitor and turncoat, U. S. marshal, and Emmett Orr, who outraged the glorious constituency of Owen by the miserable misrepresentation of them at Frankfort, a deputy, it looks like republicans are not ungrateful, but are willing to award the mess of pottage to those who are willing to give up their birthright for it.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

MATRIMONIAL.

Albert Haynes and Miss Lucinda Jones were made husband and wife this week.

J. Clay Stone, of Paris, and Miss Mary Kelleher, of Louisville, who were married in Jeffersonville June 17, have just made their friends aware of the fact.

J. B. Floyd and Miss Effie, the handsome daughter of Henderson Baugh, of Highland, were married this week. The groom is a clever young man, while his bride is an excellent lady.

Miss Burnette Pinkerton, daughter of Eld, and Mrs. B. J. Pinkerton, of Hustonville, and a very charming young lady, was married at the St. Nicholas Hotel, in Cincinnati, Tuesday evening, to Mr. Ed Hutchings, a prominent young business man of St. Louis. The pair had been sweethearts for some time, but their marriage came as a genuine surprise to Miss Pinkerton's parents.

Mr. Gilbert Grinstead, formerly of this place, but now of Richmond, and Miss Mossie Wilson Parrish, also of that city, were married at Mr. Bland Ballard's, in Danville, Wednesday, Rev. W. S. Grinstead, father of the groom, officiating. They drove to this place and after spending the night with his sister, Mrs. E. H. Beazley, left for Taylorsville, where they will visit his parents. Mrs. Grinstead, who is just 18, is an unusually handsome and pleasant young lady, while all who know the groom recognize in him a splendid young gentleman, who is as clever as the days are long.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. J. W. Hagin's subject Sunday morning is "Rightly Dividing The Word of Truth."

The ministers of the several churches have arranged to hold union services each Sunday night through July and August. The first service will be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. J. B. Crouch preaching the sermon.

THE ice house the Stanford Water, Light & Ice Company built in the Spring is proving a good investment. The output of the factory is not equal to the demand during this hot spell and the ice stored early in the season is being rapidly disposed of.

THE Lincoln County Medical Society will meet at Crab Orchard next Tuesday, 9th. Dr. E. J. Brown will read a paper on "Gastro-enteritis of Infancy," and Dr. W. J. Edmiston will discuss the "Pathology and Treatment of Fractures of the Lower Extremity."

"KANSAS was the hottest place in the United States Wednesday, the thermometer registering 104," says a dispatch. That's nothing. It was about that in our office when we came down before 6 o'clock that morning. We did have enough energy to go and see how the mercury was getting on when Old Sol got to shining good and warm.

THE camp meeting at Preachersville began Tuesday night with a large attendance and the meeting promises to be a big one. It will continue for 10 days longer, during which time we hope much good will be done. Rev. H. B. Cockrill, business manager of the Pentecostal Herald of Louisville, is one of the managers. The preachers present are: Revs. Samuel Owsley, of Middlesboro; E. E. Davenport, of Duganville; H. K. Denton, of Henderson; Wm. Davidson, of Pulaski; Andrew Johnson, of this county. Rev. H. C. Morrison, once pastor of the Methodist church here, will arrive in a few days and preach a series of sermons.

THE First State Bank of Junction City opened its doors Monday morning last and is already enjoying a good business. The building, which is owned by the bank, is a good and well arranged one, the fixtures are up-to-date, while the safe in which money will be kept is one of the few patterns that have proven thoroughly burglar proof. At a meeting on the opening day the following directors were elected: N. L. Currey, Geo. H. Hocker, W. A. Reynolds, A. Miller, R. S. Martin, John Schmidt, Wm. Trospier, B. F. Oxley and J. M. Keane, who in turn elected A. Miller, president; Dr. W. A. Brown, of Parksville, vice president; M. D. Ransdell, cashier. The latter officer is from Owen county and is not only an experienced banker, but a very pleasant gentleman.

SHERIFF T. J. BELL and Jailer Brown, of Casey county, were here Tuesday returning from Barbourville, where they went to take H. B. Howard and two daughters, whom they arrested in Casey. They were wanted for some minor offense.

BESIDES having lots of commercial printing on hand, this office has three big catalogues to print within the next two weeks, most of the copy for which is in our hands. The reason we get so much printing to do is because we do it a little better and considerably cheaper than any other office. See?

THE South Eastern Kentucky Medical Society will meet in Stanford Friday next, 12th, when an interesting program will be carried out, after which the annual election of officers will be held. Dr. Steele Bailey, of this place, is down for a paper. Doctors from a number of counties will be here and the meeting promises to be a big one.

A FREIGHT wreck occurred on the Cincinnati Southern near Sunbright, and as a result Fireman McCue, of Somerset, is dead, and Engineers Patrick Crow and Andy Moore, both of Chattanooga, are seriously injured. A brakeman named Mathews, whose home is in Somerset, is fatally hurt. The wreck occurred in tunnel No. 20 and was a rear end collision.

CIRCUIT COURT adjourned Wednesday afternoon after a 34 weeks session, during which time considerable business was done. The last and only case tried since our last issue was that of J. D. Steenbergen against the L. & N. railroad. Mr. Steenbergen instituted suit for $10,000, but later reduced it to $2,000. He claimed that while on one of the company's trains a porter came along with a lamp-lighter and accidentally or otherwise struck him on his arm, breaking a small bone and shattering his nerves to a great extent. He thought he would lose the use of his arm when he first filed the suit, but later it got better and he made the reduction in damages asked for as above. The jury gave him $400, which will be appealed. Hon. Robert Harding, assisted by Hon. R. C. Warren, represented Steenbergen and Judge J. W. Alcorn the railroad.

THE HOUSES OF REFORM.—The quarterly and annual meetings of the board of trustees of the Houses of Reform were held at the institution Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. L. P. Yandall, of Falconer, was made president; W. P. Walton, of Stanford, secretary; C. W. Bean, of Lexington, treasurer, and Mrs. S. A. Charles, of Lexington, auditor. Superintendent Doak, of the institution, made the following report: Received since opening, 341 inmates. Of this number 70 were released, 14 were paroled and two died, leaving in the institution 255 pupils. Twelve boys are employed in the laundry, 60 in the broom shop, 70 in the chair shop, two in the power house, 15 on the farm, four in the harness shop, one in the shoe shop, six with the stable, four in the care of stock, 10 in the kitchen and 19 in housework. During the year $30,374.47 was expended. The income was derived from various sources: sale of hides, hogs, chairs, etc., $1,242.28. The following stock is on hand: Calves, $65; hogs, $479.50; lambs, $50; harness, $42; broom corn, $75; chairs, $80; total, $841.50.

OLD newspapers and brown paper, to go under carpets, cheap at this office. Strings free.

YOUR account is ready for you. I need the money badly. Please call and settle. H. C. Rupley.

AWNING.—John Bright, Jr., & Co. have put up an awning, which will add to the comfort of their store.

HARRODSBURG's base ball team defeated Hustonville 15 to 2 at the former place yesterday morning. Camnitz did not pitch for the West Enders.

THERE has been a considerable let up in the hot weather, for which all of us are grateful. It rained most of yesterday and this morning is "fairly comfortable."

It was too wet for the game of ball between Stanford and Lancaster here yesterday and it will be played at Gardard's capital this afternoon. Dollars to doughnuts on Stanford.

Only one person was sent to the penitentiary this term. Alfred James, colored, confessed to forging J. T. Hackley's name to a check and was given two years. He will be taken to Frankfort tomorrow.

THE "glorious fourth" was scarcely noticed here save by the banks and the postoffice. The former were closed all day and the latter observed Sunday hours. A few stores closed up late in the afternoon, but it was more because of a lack of buyers than a superabundance of patriotism.

"I HAVE three of the best looking prisoners in the State in jail," said Jailer DeBord yesterday afternoon. "They are Robert Wilson, William Clymer and John Hendrix and three handsomer fellows would be hard to find," he added. Wilson and Clymer are waiting for the court of appeals to act on their cases and Hendrix is a Letcher county prisoner, who was sent here for safekeeping. There are a round dozen prisoners in all in jail, but the three mentioned above have the good looks of the lot.

WE had intended to attend to Owen McIntyre's case ourselves but that splendid physician and surgeon, E. W. Lillard, of the Danville News, gave him such a dose that we haven't the heart to give him the spanking we had prepared and which he really deserves. If he and his Advocate will let the capital of Lincoln's West End alone and be good we'll drop the matter. But if there's any more fun poked at Hustonville or any further effort to have the town's name abbreviated, we will know who is the cause of it and proceed at once to exterminate both "Mac" and his paper.

PROBABLY the best equipped printing office outside of Louisville in the State is that of the Harrodsburg Democrat. D. M. Hutton has charge of the job department and that he is an artist in the art preservative no one who has seen his work will gainsay. With type, presses and other appurtenances of every description and a good man like Mr. Hutton to look after the work it is no wonder to us that the Harrodsburg Democrat enjoys a good run of job work. Besides doing the best of printing, binding, etc., Mr. Hutton has samples of his embossing that prove him an expert in that line also. We congratulate our brother, Mr. W. P. Walton, on his purchase of so good a plant and on his retaining so efficient a man to look after his job department.
